"In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, ye day and year first above written.

ALBERT VAN VOORHIES, U.S.A.

“ Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by ye said
Albert Van Voorhies as his last Will and Testament in ye Presence of us subscribers, Cornelius Cornel. Petrus Sperling. Ten Sperling.

“ Memorandum, that on this present second day of December Anno Domi' 1734, personally appeared before me, Lawr' Smyth, Sumo' etc. of ye Eastern Division of New Jersey, duly commissioned and appointed for ye proving of last Wills and Testaments, Cornelius Cornel, one of the witnesses subscribed to ye within Will, who on his oath which he took on ye Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, doth depose that he was present and saw ye with-posed Maxwell's will, and the same was proved in New York City, before the Hon. Judge Sutherland.

"In the summer of 1835, I received a letter from Augustus, then residing in England, dated April 13, 1835, which I will not attempt to paraphrase. In New York, I have been informed that he is nearly bent of perfect mind and memory, and he desires God to restore calling remembrance of his life, joyfully, and knowing that it is appointed him to live some ten or twelve years, and that thus my sorrow and affliction shall be at an end. Firmly and first of all I give and bequeath my body and soul into the hands of God that govern it, and for my last I have committed it to the earth to be buried in a christianlike and decent manner at the discretion of my friends as hereafter mentioned, nothing doubting, but at the same time trusting I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God: and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give and bequeath it in the same manner and form following. First, I give and bequeath I do order that my lawful debt be paid and my funeral charges defrayed by my Executors hereafter named. Hereby my division of my estate is made. Secondly, It is my will and order that my most beloved wife Adriantje, shall have the use and income of my whole estate both real and personal, during the time she remains my widow, for her support and maintenance of my children, but if it should happen that she should remarry, in such case I give her the sum of two hundred pounds current money of New York, a bed, bedstead, and all the furniture thereunto belonging, a Dutch cupboard, with all the linnen and woollen apparel, to some two wenches by name Sine and Sine, to her and her heirs and assigns forever. Thirdly, I give and bequeath unto my son Laurence Voorhees, and to his heirs and assigns forever all my real estate whatsoever I have in Flatbush in Kings County or elsewhere the same may be found, upon this condition, that he the said Laurence Voorhees or his heirs, shall pay unto my daughter Femmetje, and the children of my daughter Adriantje, by name Lugebert, and Phebe Lott, the sum of six hundred pounds current money of New York, one half of said six hundred pounds to my and the deponents being present, the said V. Antonides together with the deponents, JOHANNES E. LOTT, Surrogate.

"That GEORGE VAN VOORHISES, on the twentieth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty three, came before the undersigned JOHANNES E. LOTT, Surrogate of the said County, and the said Surrogate and JOHN VAN VOORHISES, of Flatbush in the County, Yeoman and Justice of the Peace, on the said day, and that they did see ALVIN VOORHISES, then and said the within written instrument purporting to be the Will of the said ALVIN VOORHISES, bearing date the twenty fifth day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty three, and heard him publish and declare the same as and for his last Will and Testament, that at the time thereof the said ALVIN VOORHISES was of sound disposing mind and memory to the best of the knowledge and belief of them, the deponents, and that V. Antonides together with the deponents subscribed his name to the said Will as a witness thereto in the testators presence JOHANNES E. LOTT, Surrogate."

And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form, Imprimis, I give and bequeath unto Lammetje, my dearly beloved wife all the household goods, moveables, chattels, bonds and bills of sale, which came from her estate when I married her. Imprimis, it is my will and I do order that in the first place all my just debts and funeral charges be paid and satisfied. Imprimis, I give to my well beloved son Luykis ten pounds. Imprimis, It is my will and I do order that my lands be sold and all my household goods and chattels, and the money to be equally divided between my sons Luykis, Gerrit, Mine, Jaba, Abraham and my daughter Cattrena and the money to be paid out "In the name of God, Amen. And as touching such movables as are wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I

And it is my will that all my moveable estate as soon as convenient after the marrying or decease of my wife be equally divided between my sons and four daughters share and share alike, to them, their heirs and assigns forever.
